this contract is null and void. For purposes of this agreement, once the puppy leaves the seller's premises, it is under the buyer's responsibility and the seller is no longer responsible for any veterinary bills. Any treatment rendered at this time would be at the expense of the buyer.

1 Year Genetic Health Warranty: We do try to ensure you purchase a genetically healthy puppy, and if in case your puppy is found to have a genetic disorder (such as hip and elbow displasia, pathological spinal disorder, luxating patella, and a continuing open fontinel) as diagnosed by 2 (unrelated) licensed veterinarians within 1 year of purchase, we will exchange your puppy for one of equal value. There are however no warranties against common illnesses or accidents incurred on your part after the puppy is in your possession. All regular health care immunizations are the buyer's responsibility as described below;

The Buyer's Responsibility: The buyer agrees to take good care of this dog which includes; proper dog food, appropriate housing, maintaining necessary shots, deworming, ensuring overall welfare (physical and emotional care). The buyer also assumes all responsibility for any accidents or injuries caused by the misbehavior of the dog after it is in the owner's possession. The death, injury, or loss of said dog due to theft, carelessness, recklessness, abuse, neglect, heat stroke, or accident will not entitle the buyer to any compensation from the breeder. This dog is warranted only for the purpose of being a companion animal; not for any other purpose or reason, such as breeding, show, etc. Seller is bound only to the original buyer. No warranties, expressd or implied, are made under the terms of the contract except as stated above.

This is the entire agreement between the parties and is valid and agreed upon by all parties. By signing below, all parties are affirming that they have read, understood, and agreed to this contract in full.
